abroad to over 50 different countries. R-MC provides dedicated support services to enhance international student transition and success. Randolph-Macon College offers significant merit-based scholarships for qualifying international students.

Regis College

Regis is located on a beautiful suburban campus in Weston, Massachusetts, just 12 miles from the center of Boston. Regis offers undergraduate majors and graduate/professional programs to prepare students for such in-demand fields as nursing, health, public service, education, business and communication. Our curriculum provides a firm foundation in the liberal arts, sciences, and social sciences that expand our students' skills and perspectives. New programs include Biomedical Engineering and Sonography.

Saint Leo University

Founded in 1889, Saint Leo University is a private, Catholic, liberal-arts based university with a rich tradition of welcoming students of all faiths and those with no religious affiliation. We pride ourselves on delivering a high-quality education in a principled environment at an affordable cost. International students are eligible for merit scholarships and other need-based aid to help make Saint Leo University affordable. Eligibility for merit scholarships is based on grade point averages and standardized test scores (if applicable). Highly qualified students may also be eligible for honors and leadership scholarships.

St. Mary's University

St. Mary's University, founded in 1852 by Marianist brothers and priests, is the first institution of higher learning in San Antonio and the oldest Catholic university in Texas and the Southwest. Personal attention and powerful academic programs have made St. Mary's a nationally recognized liberal arts institution.

The University provides a Catholic education experience that evokes academic excellence while integrating liberal studies, professional preparation and ethical commitment. St. Mary's full-time faculty members, 94 percent of whom hold doctoral or terminal degrees in their fields, are committed to student success in and out of the classroom. St. Mary's offers more than 75 programs, including doctoral and law programs. With a diverse student population of about 3,800 of all faiths and backgrounds, the student/faculty ratio of 12-to-1 permits small classes and promotes active learning.

Truman State University

Consistently ranked among the nation's best colleges, Truman has been named the no. 1 Public University in the Midwest for the past 19 years by U.S. News and World Report. A small college located in the heart of the Midwest, Truman's beautiful, residential campus in Kirksville, Missouri provides a welcoming environment where intellectually curious students can thrive. With small classes and a 16 to 1 student to faculty ratio, no one is just a name at Truman. Instead, professors want students to actively engage in their education and to search for those high impact learning experiences that make students into great global citizens. Undergraduate research, study abroad, service learning, internships and more are a part of a Truman education. As Missouri's only highly selective public liberal arts and sciences university, Truman is best known for offering exceptionally high-quality academic programs and an amazing educational value.

Whitworth University

Whitworth University, a 126 year-old private, non-profit institution in Washington State, offers rigorous programs in the liberal arts and sciences, small classes with guaranteed opportunities for undergraduate research in the sciences, as well as internship opportunities. Students in our biology, chemistry, computer science and physics programs are consistently admitted to top-ranked graduate programs in the U.S., and secure positions in their area of study. Our graduates work at both start-ups and multi-national companies such as Boeing, Amazon, and Microsoft. Additionally, our 3-2 Engineering Program is an attractive option as many of our students are admitted by our partner institutions, Columbia University in New York, and Washington University in St. Louis. Whitworth supports its international students with comprehensive academic, internship, and career services, as well as generous financial aid opportunities. Qualifying students are automatically awarded academic scholarship opportunities up to $22,000 per year. Need-based aid opportunities for financially qualifying students are also available. Whitworth is a smart investment!
